May 3, 2024

Dear Fellow Alaskan,

We would like to invite you to join us in supporting the upcoming 19th annual Jewish Cultural Gala, honoring Valerie Nurr'araluk Davidson, President and CEO of Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium, one of Alaska's most outstanding and dedicated healthcare leaders. Celebrating decades of her devotion to improve the quality of life of Alaska natives, American Indian peoples, and all Alaskans in previously serving as Lt. Governor, Commissioner of the Alaska Department of Health and Social Services, President of Alaska Pacific University (APU), and currently as the President and CEO of ANTHC.

Valerie, who is Yupik, is an enrolled Tribal citizen of the Orutsarmiut Traditional Native Council in Bethel and throughout her decades of service has advanced a collective and holistic approach to self-governance and well-being for all Alaskans. Her visionary leadership and outstanding dedication, with effectiveness and empathy, truly exemplifies the ancient Jewish saying "Whoever saves a life, is considered to have saved an entire world."

This year's Gala which will be held on Saturday Night, November 9th, 2024 at the Dena'ina Convention Center, will mark nineteen years of Jewish culture, cuisine and music in Alaska, promoting diversity and tolerance for all Alaskans and building cultural bridges in the broader Alaskan community.

Our previous nineteen Galas, which were a huge success with sold out crowds of over 600 guests, spoke of family and unity bringing together the Anchorage community in a most memorable way. Dancing to the live music of the renowned Nefesh Music Orchestra all the way from Los Angeles, savoring a tantalizing array of the finest Jewish entrees, and joining in the bidding frenzy of an auction filled with many wonderful and unique items.

Our previous honorees included Chief Executive of Providence Alaska, Ella Goss; Holocaust liberator First National Bank President, Dan Cuddy; Holocaust survivor, Rachel Gottstein; Drs. Laurie and Michael Bleicher, Alaska Native Language Center founder, Dr. Michael Krauss; Carl & Pam Brady; Perry & Gloria Green; Alaska Commercial Company Jewish founding fathers, heroic Alaska Airlines pilots and flight attendants, and the founder of Institute for Social & Economic Research at UAA, Vic Fischer, among others.

The fundraiser will benefit the Alaska Jewish Campus, which houses the Alaska Jewish Historical Museum and Cultural Center, the David and Ruth Green Lubavitch Jewish Center of Alaska and the Gan Yeladim Early Learning Center. Our Cultural Campus and Museum provides a gathering place and historical repository, enriching and deepening the cultural wealth of the broader Alaskan community.

Our goal for this year's Gala is to support the Alaska Jewish Museum's operational fund as well as its capital fund to provide for the creation of new museum exhibits, archives, and programs. In addition, the Gala's fundraiser goal is to support the Alaska Jewish Campus and Gan Yeladim Early Learning Center operational fund, providing for the year-round programs, activities, and services, as well as its capital fund for building upgrades and renovations.

An outstanding show of Alaska's prominent leaders in business, academia, and public service are among the many attendees. Your company does not want to miss this exposure opportunity to become a donor and supporter of the "event of the season" in Anchorage.

Our current and past sponsors include corporations such as GCI, Alaska Airlines, ConocoPhillips, Providence Alaska Medical Center, CIRI, McKinley Capital, Arctic Slope Regional Corporation, Anchorage Chrysler Dodge, ACS, AT&T Alasacom, NANA, Chenega Corporation, Udelhoven Oilfield Services, Usibelli Coal Mine, Chevron, BP, JL Properties, Alyeska Pipeline Service Company, Mercedes Benz/Cal Worthington Ford, Bristol Bay Native Corporation, ENSTAR, Pepsi Co., First National Bank of Alaska, Old Harbor Native Corporation, David Green Master Furrier and many others.

It is our hope that your company will join the many other Alaskan corporations who are represented at the upcoming Jewish Cultural Gala by sponsoring a Corporate Table at "the event of the season".

Again, thank you for your support,

Stacia Green,
Chair, Jewish Cultural Gala
